Jonathan James
R3 Candidate Exercise

What I have learnt so far
I have learnt how to setup a basic Corda flow. Creating IOU and Message flows between two parties, corda set this up in a way that no outside party has access to the transactions except if they were one of the parties involved. After creating a flow, one can issue a vault query to check that the flow exists and get general information about the flow.